Thank you, Lily! I was just sitting down to perform this very act when your email came in. I appreciate your efforts, even while on leave! I am fine with this draft.

I just talked with Brent on the phone. I believe the attached version should incorporate today's comments from Thomas Butler, John Chesnutt, Carolyn Levine (HQ OCIR), Bill Glenn, Kathleen Timmins (HQ Suspension & Debarment) and last Friday's comments from Enrique Manzanilla and Anthony Chu (CDPH). Brent and I talked walked through the letter and made judgement calls on reconciling among some competing comments. In addition, I changed the following:

- The Navy is planning to send out the Parcel G workplan 6/15, so it will be released by the 6/18 date of this letter, so I changed the language accordingly
- Michele Huitric informed me that her style manual uses the format "Tetra Tech EC Inc." without the comma, so I reverted back to that version.
- Abi Gaudario today gave instructions that if using RA letterhead, we should not use the RA's title under his signature line. If we do not have RA letterhead available at the time of printing, Brent will need to type it back in.

If you have any further edits before 10 am Tuesday morning Pacific Time, please tell Brent before he sends to his Navy counterpart for coordination.

Thank you all for your work on this letter.

- Lily

Any concerns with the OCIR revisions to the draft letter before I send on to my counterpart at the Navy? I have accepted the track changes in the version sent back to me from OCIR and renamed the file and made the change requested by Bill Glenn. Please make any final edits to this attached version before I share with Navy and ask them to share a copy of their response letter.

OCIR's Carolyn Levine has shared some suggested edits in redline. Please let me know if/when I can go ahead and share with my counterpart at the Navy, Jeanine Womble, and at the same time, ask if they can share a draft of the Navy's response for our review. Please note Carolyn's comment regarding cc's and let me know if we still wish to include in the final draft. Thanks.

I am out of the office due to some back issues so if the yellow folder is coming up to me in OPA, can they deliver the yellow folder instead to Kelly Zito who is our Director and she can review concur. Please keep in mind that I have shared a draft with OCIR's Carolyn Levine and am awaiting her review/comment. Once I get that, I will be sharing with my counterpart at the Navy, Jeanine Womble, and asking her to share with me the Navy's response for our review. It is my understanding that the target date for both our and the Navy's responses has been moved back to Monday, June 18th so both responses can go out at the same time.

Using the file Thomas just sent, I made one edit to Dr. Smith's cc listing.

Here's the updated file with today's date on it.

The yellow routing folder is being sent to Brent.

Sorry for the spam. This is the version that is circulating now. (I just took out the definition of CDPH since it was only used once—no other changes)

I'm signing off on the yellow package right now (for Brianna) and will move it to John. I've made a few very small edits in the version attached, accepted all changes, printed it, and replaced it in the package. Let me know if anyone needs anything more from ORC. I'm happy to help coordinate.

Thanks,

Thomas

I can share the latest draft with Carolyn Levine in OCIR for her review and comment before I then share with the Navy's Jeanine Womble who is my counterpart with the Navy for review comments. I will keep you all posted on whether OCIR's Carolyn Levine has any comments or edits to this revised draft.

Thanks for all this work, Lily! I think we should check with Brent first thing Monday on the HQ routing issue. I think we're in good shape. As you know, we also have a reporter eager to see our response.

I'll be here Monday morning and will touch base with Brent.

Have a great weekend!

Dear Bill,

I checked w/Navy, and they are comfortable with the language in the attached draft that states that the Navy is the lead on the suspension/debarment issue. In addition, Enrique was the last reviewer on this version, so I checked with John, who confirmed it does not need to go through him again. However, he will need to sign on the yellow folder. Attached is a photo of the routing slip. It does not have HQ on it. Brent said there is a possibility it may need to go through HQ. If so, do you know who it goes to and how to route appropriately?

Dear Thomas,

Since Brianna is out, could you review and sign for ORC? I can bring to you this afternoon if you are in.

I have the yellow folder, and I want to begin routing it. In addition, Brent said we will need to coordinate with the Navy. I have shown the hard copy draft to my Navy staff level counterpart, but I believe Brent has a counterpart assigned to Congressional relations as well.

I will be out of town 6/9-17 helping my mom with surgery, but I will be monitoring phone and email. I will not be able to physically route the yellow folder. Brent, could you help with that as needed?

Thanks!
